

Why Do Women Love Little Women?

Louisa May Alcott and Her Circle
Exhibit in Special Collections Division
Jackson Library
March 6 - April 14, 2000

A discussion led by Dr. Hephzibah Roskelly,
Associate Professor of English, The University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Among women, Louisa May Alcott's Little Women is one of the most popular books ever published. It has never been out of print since it was first published in 1869. At least four major movies have been made based on it, and there have been many dolls and other collectibles based on the characters in the book.

Daughters, bring your mothers and grandmothers and any Little Women dolls or memorabilia you might have and join us for a discussion of Louisa May Alcott's Little Women, its impact, and its continuing appeal.

Sponsored by UNCG Friends of the Library

Sunday, March 12, 2000 3:00 p.m.
Alumni House, UNCG Campus

FREE Admission
Reception following.
For more information or to register, call Barry Miller at 336-334-3741.

Great Books by Great Women
Women's History Month